As of 4 May, 12,266 people have tested positive for COVID-19. Women have a higher positive COVID-19 rate than men.

Confirmed COVID-19 cases, equating to 190 confirmed cases per 100,000 population.

COVID-19 related contacts with NHS 24 111 Service stabilised at a 1,100 a day from a peak of 2,300.

A&E attendance has dropped 56% since lockdown began.

Hospital admissions have dropped 42% since lockdown began.

Number of A&E attendances within Scotland (weekly), 5 January to 26 April 2020.

Admissions to hospital in Scotland (weekly), 5 January to 26 April 2020.